HONORS

Manijeh Razeghi,
Walter P. Murphy
Professor of Electrical and Computer Engineering

and director of the Center for Quantum Devices, has received the IEC Fellow Award from the International Engineering Consortium (IEC).

The IEC Fellow Award recognizes individuals who have provided the information industry with a superior level of sustained and significant service in areas that include education, technology and industry leadership.

In receiving the award, Razeghi joins more than 80 communications and technology trailblazers, including David Packard, founder of Hewlett-Packard; Robert Galvin, former CEO of Motorola, Inc.; and Nobel Laureate Jack S. Kilby, a pioneer in the development of the integrated circuit.

Razeghi is the first woman to be named an IEC Fellow.
